

Summer Drama Camp

An awesome theater experience for teens

Ages 14-18

This camp brings you the very best in theater and fun. It includes an exciting 10 days for the beginning teen-actor to the more advanced actor who wants serious training. Intensive study of all aspects of theater for the serious student includes:

Performance

- Acting
- Musical Theater
- Improvisation
- Movement/Choreography
- Stage Combat

Technical

- Lighting and Sound
- Costume Design
- Set Design

Students will present a final production that will showcase all areas of study.

The students will be responsible for all aspects of productions (performance, technical and marketing).

About the Camp Director

Anthony Whitaker is an actor and teacher who has directed, written or performed in many shows. He is a lifelong fan of the Oz books and films and has performed for all living munchkins as well as descendants of L. Frank Baum. He also was a student in The Second City Conservatory Program and studied with Stephen Colbert.
