FINAL EXAM WEEK NOTES

- When a nursing course has more than one time/day scheduled for lecture, the first lecture time listed on the schedule determines the exam time scheduled for the course.
- Telecourse finals are in the Testing Center during final exam week.
- When a course includes both lecture and lab, the final exam will be scheduled during the lecture component. If a lab final is required, it would be taken during the last lab meeting the week prior to the final exam week.
- For those courses that meet for one hour, one day per week, the final exam will be one hour in length, during the regular meeting time.
