2020 - A tough year to be a college student- You can help!

This year was a hard one for everyone including Moraine Valley Community College students. Our students were faced with job loss, illness, caring for sick loved ones, teaching their children or siblings to adapt to online learning while they also made that transition. For many, figuring out how to pay for college seemed impossible on top of everything else. The Moraine Valley Foundation saw an increase in the number of students they helped during the pandemic so far. They purchased laptops for students who didn't have the right equipment to learn remotely and provided emergency textbook funds to those who couldn't afford to pay for books, and even helped with utility bills, transportation, child care and food for many students in crisis.

The number of students needing help continues to rise so we are reaching out to our alumni and friends to support our students in need and crisis. Your donation can help to keep a student in school at a time when it seems to them that everything is against them. Please consider paying it forward to help a student who struggles to build a better life through education. Let's end 2020 on a positive note by giving hope to a student in need.

Alumni Spotlight: Nursing alumna got a strong foundation at Moraine Valley

"I graduated from high school on a Friday and started in Moraine Valley's Phlebotomy Program the following Monday," Laurie Keating said. She had to support herself, and she needed a good job with insurance. "I knew phlebotomy would provide that, so that's how I started my health care career." She always wanted to become a nurse, so a few years later, she returned to Moraine Valley to earn her associate degree in nursing.

Keating said she was well-prepared to start her career after completing the college's Nursing Program. "It's really challenging, so when you graduate with your associate degree, you are ready for anything. I appreciate everything I learned at Moraine Valley and can't say enough about the program and what it did for me as a nurse." READ MORE.

Because of that approach, she aided in the college grant-supported project Mosaics: Muslim Voices in America.
